All in June

A week ago, I had a fire to warm my feet, my hands and face, cold winds, that never made a friend, crept in and out of every place.

Today the feels are rich and grass, and buttercup in thousands grow, I'll show the world where I have been, with gold dust scene on either shoe.

Tell to my garden back I come, we're bumblebees for hours and hours sit on their soft, fat, velvet bums, to wiggle out of hollow flowers.
